

International festival of short film made by kids summary of
RULES 2017

WHO

The contest will accept any video made by kids from 3 to 19 years old and produced by schools, workshops institutions or by the kids alone. Participants can be from any country.

ENTRY FEE

There is no entry fee. Submission is free.

SECTIONS

Sections are divided by age groups, but can be flexible:

- BIMBI (3-7 years)
- BAMBINI (8-10 years)
- RAGAZZINI (11-13 years)
- RAGAZZI (14-19 years)

DURATION

Maximum duration is 10 minutes. Longer durations will be accepted only in exceptional cases.

LANGUAGE

Works have to be in Italian or subtitled in Italian.

English subtitles can be accepted only if provided in a separate .srt file with correct time-codes along with a file of the film with no subtitles.

Films will be watched by Italian kids. Films that don't comply with the above requests will be rejected as non understandable.

TOPICS

Topic is free.

Nevertheless, the festival will pay a special attention to films

- released with a Creative Commons license
- about bridges (real or metaphorical)
- about slowness
